Opportunity Partners welcomes new board member

MINNETONKA – Opportunity Partners, a Twin Cities disability services nonprofit, proudly announces Jack Lee as the newest member of its Board of Directors.

Jack Lee serves as the Executive Director of Voyageur Outward Bound School (VOBS). He brings many years of business and nonprofit leadership, including at Intel Corporation and Youth Frontiers. He has been involved as a Rotarian, served on the board of Upstream Arts and was a part of volunteer leadership at the Basilica of St. Mary. He and his wife Laura have three children and enjoy long road trips.

ABOUT:

Established in 1953, Opportunity Partners is celebrating 70 years of advancing the quality of life for people with disabilities. Opportunity Partners is a Twin Cities nonprofit that offers employment, enrichment and residential services that help people with disabilities earn an income, live as independently as possible, and participate as active members of the community. Opportunity Partners focuses on the abilities of the 1,500 people we serve each year. For more information, visit www.opportunities.org
